Description

Vase by François-Théodore LEGRAS (1839-1916), French master glassmaker Oval in shape, made of multilayered pâte de verre from the Art Nouveau period. It is adorned with a tree motif set against a backdrop of a lake and mountains; the mountains are reflected in the water, lending the piece a gentle, serene quality. This work is characteristic of LEGRAS, featuring acid-etched details that add relief and depth to the design. Signed "Legras" at the bottom; a high-quality piece in perfect condition.
