Léon Hatot - Ato - Rare Art Deco Electric Desk Clock With Crystal Inkwells (1927)

2 800 EUR

Signature : Hatot Leon

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Width : 42cm

Height : 18cm

Description

A rare and elegant Art Deco desk set signed by ATO--Léon Hatot, the renowned French watchmaker and designer.This desk clock, made around 1927, features a superb walnut (or mahogany) design with the clean, geometric lines characteristic of the Art Deco aesthetic.It rests on a wide, stepped rectangular base, embellished with decorative brass moldings. The circular dial with Arabic numerals is set within a domed case and framed by a beautiful gilded metal bezel.On either side of the clock are two magnificent crystal inkwells, complete with their original metal stoppers, accompanied by a pen rest.The electromagnetic movement is signed "ATO" and bears its serial number.Complete set, in good condition and in perfect working order.This piece elegantly combines Léon Hatot's pioneering

Dealer

Le Temps Sous Controle

Electric and electromagnetic clocks and timepieces

Mobile : 0680219960

Montrouge 92120

electric clockmaking with the French decorative arts of the interwar period.A particularly decorative collector's item, intended for enthusiasts of antique timepieces and Art Deco furniture.Period: circa 1927Signature: ATO - Léon HatotMovement: electromagneticMaterials: wood, brass, crystal, and metalCondition: good overall condition, operation verifiedInkwells: two pieces with original stoppers.