Description

An elegant pair of neoclassical decorative objects from the early 19th century, of French origin, crafted from finely chiseled and gilded bronze and hand-painted and hand-glazed porcelain, depicting delicate allegorical female figures.The structure, characterized by rich sculptural decoration, features ornamental elements inspired by the classical repertoire, with ram's heads on the sides, festoons, and drapery that harmoniously envelop the body of the pieces. The porcelain surfaces, framed by refined gilded borders and decorative motifs on a cobalt blue background, lend the ensemble a distinctive chromatic balance and a remarkable level of craftsmanship.The marble bases complete the composition, enhancing its elegance and decorative quality.A pair with great visual impact, reflecting a taste for
