Description

Pair of Chinese porcelain baluster vases - Late 19th centurySuperb pair of large Chinese porcelain baluster vases, dating from the late 19th century, with cobalt blue decoration on a white background.They have an elegant silhouette with a central choke, a wide flared collar and a flared base.The decor, particularly rich, is composed of large blooming flowers, evoking peonies, surrounded by abundant foliage finely painted in cobalt blue. A delicate floral frieze underlines the perimeter of the collars.The whole offers a very beautiful contrast between the deep blue and the whiteness of the porcelain.Beautiful decorative pair of 34 cm high, ideal for a refined decoration or a collection of Asian porcelains.Origin: ChinaPeriod: late 19th centuryMaterial: porcelainDecor: cobalt blue on white
