Description

Bronze sculpture depicting a young girl sitting on a donkey, to which she is offering a bouquet of grass. Bronze with three patinas: gold for the young woman, brown for the donkey and the post, and green for the terrace. Signed E. WANTE on the back, on the terrace near the donkey's right hind leg. A very poetic and bucolic subject that effectively captures the figure's intent and the animal's greediness. Ernest WANTE was born in Ghent, Belgium, in 1872 and died in Berchem-Sainte-Agathe in 1960. He was a painter and sculptor who worked in portraits, landscapes, and religious subjects.
