Double-edged Dagger

160 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Solid wood

Description

The blade comes from a Model 1916 dagger manufactured in Thiers, France. During the colonial period, these very sturdy and sharp blades were salvaged. The carved, egg-shaped wooden handle is characteristic of artisanal West African craftsmanship. The guard is original. The brass wire ferrule has been adjusted to securely fasten this new handle.In perfect condition; the blade is slightly chipped on one side.Shipping not included.
