Description

A stunning, large antique piece of linen lace, entirely handmade, combining needlework and crochet with great refinement.Its particularly elaborate design consists of a delicate openwork pattern, punctuated by raised star motifs, stylized flowers, and geometric compositions. A large central medallion, framed by several richly worked borders, harmoniously structures the entire piece.The various motifs, crafted from a beautiful natural linen thread in shades of ivory and golden beige, demonstrate remarkable textile craftsmanship.The piece is shown against a white background, but a contrasting background will reveal the full delicacy of its openwork and the richness of its ornamentation.It can be used as a large bedspread or as an exceptional decorative tablecloth.A beautiful antique piece in excellent
