Description

Vintage dining table from the renowned British brand G-Plan, emblematic of 1960s-70s design.This elegant teak table captivates with its beautiful tabletop in warm tones and, above all, its arched legs, with their curved and sculptural lines, which give it a particularly elegant and airy silhouette.Its design perfectly blends functionality with mid-century aesthetics, featuring generous proportions. It includes a butterfly extension built into the tabletop, allowing it to easily extend from 163 to 210 cm. An ingenious and practical system.Features:Manufacturer: G-PlanPeriod: 1960s-70sStyle: Scandinavian / Mid-Century ModernMaterial: TeakTabletop with built-in butterfly extensionBeautiful base with curved, arched legsDimensions:Length without extension: 163 cmLength with extension: 210 cmWidth: 107
