Gien Manufactory - Trianon Earthenware Clock Decorated With Putti - Grand Dépôt, Paris - 19th Cent

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Gien Manufactory - Trianon earthenware clock with putti decoration - Grand Dépôt, Paris - 19th centuryAn elegant earthenware mantel clock from the Gien Manufactory, Trianon model, decorated in shades of blue on an ivory background, dating from the second half of the 19th century.Inspired by the Louis XVI style, this clock features refined architecture, with a curved pediment adorned with volutes, pilasters decorated with foliage in relief, and a molded base resting on four feet.Its facade is richly decorated with floral garlands, foliage, and plant motifs, framing a charming oval medallion depicting putti in a classically inspired setting.The white enamel dial, with blue Roman numerals, features delicate openwork hands and a finely chased gilded brass bezel.It bears the inscription:"GRAND DÉPÔT - 17,

Dealer

Antiquités Dubouchage
Generalist
Tel : 0614100067
Mobile : 0612094302

1 rue Rancher
Nice 06000

RUE DROUOT - PARIS"This inscription refers to the famous Parisian firm founded by Émile Bourgeois in the 19th century, which specialized in the sale of earthenware, porcelain, crystal, and decorative art objects.The clock bears the handwritten signature "Gien" on the back.Its particularly elegant decoration, fine craftsmanship, and association with the Grand Dépôt attest to the refinement of French productions from the second half of the 19th century.Condition: in very fine condition, with no reported cracks, chips, or restoration.Mechanical movement in working order.Dimensions:Height: 40 cmWidth: 24 cmDepth: 12 cmA beautiful decorative and collectible piece, representative of the craftsmanship of the Gien manufactory in the 19th century.