Description

2 silver salt cellars that can form a pair created in Strasbourg in 1769 by Jean Jacque Ullman and in 1771 by Johan Georg Pick They rest on 4 curly legs, the rim being double net. On the back, there is the farmers-general's hallmark (letter U) surmounted by a lis flower for Johan Georg Pick and the same hallmark (letter S) for Jean Jacques UlmanAnother hallmark expresses the title of the money in "loth" (a system in force in Alsace until 1791). The number 13 corresponds to 13 loth (is a purity of about 812.5 thousandths of pure silver) The 100% pure silver being 16 loth. This poinçon is also surmounted by a lis flower.
