Street Vendor - Madagascar

1 600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Width : 67 cm

Height : 83 cm

Description

Fabric painting--watercolor--depicting a Malagasy street vendor Created in Antananarivo, Madagascar, by artist James Rainimaharosoa: 1860-1926One of the first renowned Malagasy painters, trained in the late 19th century (he worked notably with the British missionary William Johnson)A Malagasy laborer or street vendor carrying a heavy load balanced on his shoulder and holding a walking stick (often called amponga or traveler's cane), depicted in a landscape of Antananarivo (as indicated by the signature Tananarive). This type of artwork is part of the local artistic production of the colonial era, some series of which were presented at international exhibitions (such as in Paris in 1900 or Marseille in 1906). Other examples or related works by the artist are preserved in archives and

Dealer

Galerie Yannick David
Objets de curiosités ,Travaux de compagnonnage
Tel : 0475300367

14a rue simonis
Bruxelles 1060

specialized libraries, such as the SOAS Library.