Description

Collection of 18th-Century Comic Operas - Featuring 16 Engravings by Martinet and Musical Scores - Philidor, Favart, Monsigny (1761-1764) A very fine "bibliophile's" copy in-8 bringing together three comic operas and comedies emblematic of the Louis XV period. The volume is distinguished by a remarkable series of 16 separate engravings executed by the famous engraver François-Nicolas Martinet (dedicated to M. de La Ferté, Intendant of the King's Pleasures), as well as by the engraved musical scores(notated arias / vaudevilles) bound at the end of each work. The collection includes: Le Maréchal Ferrant, a one-act comic opera (Quétant, music by Philidor). Second revised and expanded edition. Paris, Claude Herissant, 1761. Complete with its set of engraved scene plates
