Brass Surveyor's Compass In Its Case

200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Length : 18 x 10 cm

Description

A brass surveyor's compass, designed for determining direction and topographic surveys. The instrument features a circular dial under glass with cardinal points, a peripheral scale, and a magnetic needle. The cylindrical body is equipped with adjustment and sighting mechanisms. Preserved in its original wooden case with a metal handle.Details: Period: early 20th century; Use: surveying and topography; Materials: brass, glass, and wood; Case: 18 × 10 cm; Case height: 10 cm, Condition: signs of use and oxidation consistent with its age; instrument stored in its case.

Dealer

Art Classique
curiosités, art premier et Asiatique
Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740