This antique, neoclassical-style trumeau features a carved, gilded-wood decorative panel--depicting a trophy of a torch and quiver, flowers, and ribbon bows--surmounting a beveled glass mirror. In excellent condition, this piece is perfectly suited for a bedroom, a space between two windows, or above a fireplace. The gold patina catches the light, creating beautiful reflections that are further amplified by the mirror. The piece dates to the 19th century and is in very good condition.
