Description

"PizzaKobra" table lamp designed by Ron Arad and produced by iGuzzini.Made of aluminum and steel with a glossy chrome finish, it consists of a series of articulated concentric rings that unfold to form a sculptural structure, reaching up to 105 cm in height. When fully folded, the lamp takes the form of a flat, compact disc.The rings are connected by invisible mechanical joints, whose friction allows the lamp to be held in different positions and its height to be adjusted. The swivel head, made of die-cast aluminum, incorporates six 1 W white-light LEDs equipped with diffusing lenses. The lamp is turned on via a touch switch.Adjustable height: up to 105 cm.Designed by: R. Arad, iGuzzini.Manufactured by: iGuzzini, Italy.
