Jules Dalou (1838-1902) -- "man Leaning On His Shovel"

1 900 EUR

Signature : Jules DALOU (1838-1902)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sandstone

Height : 18 cm

Description

Stoneware edition by the Manufacture Nationale de SèvresCirca 1900/1910, based on the original terracotta from 1889/1898Signed "Dalou" on the plinth at the back"Sèvres" stamp beneath the baseDimensions: Height: 18 cmRelated to the work:HistoryFigurines created for the Monument to Labor, which was to be erected in honor of workers but was ultimately never built. This 32-meter-tall monument consisted of a cubic base with sides adorned with large reliefs depicting working-class life. On the base, a series of niches was to house statues of workers from the industrial and agricultural sectors, approximately 2.50 meters tall. Dalou began by producing numerous sketches, about a hundred of which are housed at the Musée du Petit Palais (Paris); he sketched from life, yet with great meticulousness,

Dealer

Galerie Paris Manaus

Paris-Manaus Gallery

Tel : 0608518537

Mobile : 0608518537

Village Suisse, 95 grande allée, 78 avenue de suffren

Paris 75015

the city workers, miners, sailors, and farm laborers he encountered by chance during his walks. After the artist's death, his daughter Georgette sold numerous models to the Susse foundry, which were cast in bronze.Galerie Paris-Manaus