Description

An imposing and refined devotional sculptural group depicting Saint Anne with the Child Mary, an expression of the Neapolitan artistic and religious tradition.The composition stands out for the extraordinary expressiveness of the polychrome terracotta faces. Saint Anne, depicted in her later years, has an intensely realistic face, marked by deep wrinkles and animated by a gentle, compassionate gaze. Beside her, the Child Mary stands out for her delicate features, rosy cheeks, and serene expression.Both figures wear rich fabric garments, embellished with gold embroidery, trimmings, and refined lace. The composition is completed by the elaborate crowns and the monumental golden halo behind Saint Anne.A work of remarkable visual impact, in which the richness of the decorative elements is
