Description

A remarkable pair of romantic landscapes--oil on canvas--early 20th century A pair of large oil-on-canvas paintings depicting two distinctive landscapes, in the tradition of early 20th-century romantic and picturesque painting.The first painting offers a particularly captivating composition: a rolling landscape at twilight, dominated by the ruins of a medieval castle perched on the hillside. In the foreground, a lively scene featuring a horse-drawn cart adds life and depth to this composition. The golden light of the setting sun gently envelops the landscape and creates a poetic atmosphere.The second painting depicts a magnificent mountain torrent, whose turbulent waters wind their way between massive rocks. Overlooking the river, an ancient fortified residence with medieval features blends
