Octagonal Delft Earthenware Vase, Pear-shaped

3 000 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 26 cm

Description

Dutch Delftware vase, octagonal and pear-shaped, decorated in the Chinese style of the transitional period; 17th century, circa 1680-1690, Delft, Netherlands.Blue-and-white decoration.Dimensions: approximately 26 cm high.The neck of the vase has a shape known as a "garlic head"Attributed to the "De Metaale Pot" workshop (1657-1818) or "De Grieksche A" workshop (1670-1775), Delft.Condition : No cracks or restoration; some missing glaze and a chip on the rim of the neck.Reference:For a comparable example, see:- Groninger Museum, object no. 1982.0092

Dealer

Verkoulen Oriental & European Antiques
Antiques
Tel : +31
Mobile : 0622008502

Willem II Singel 44
Roermond 6041