Description

An Italian painting from the mid-20th century. This oil-on-canvas work--on its original canvas--depicts a harbor scene with ships and figures, executed in an antique style with a high level of painterly skill. It is a 20th-century copy that faithfully reproduces the 1641 original by Salvator Rosa, titled Marina del porto (Harbor Seascape), currently held in the Palatine Gallery in Florence.
The painting is presented in a beautifully decorated, carved, and gilded (bronze-toned) wooden frame. It is a piece of substantial size and striking visual impact, well-suited for various
