Description

TheseArt Deco-era lidded vases are crafted from white marbleveined with light gray. Their elegant silhouette, bulging at thetop and tapering toward the base, is topped by aremovable lid featuring a molded rim. Their slender shapesevoke Mediterranean amphorae and allow them toblend harmoniously into both contemporary interiorsand classical or neoclassical settings.Each piece is turned and carved directly from a block ofsolid marble. Natural and unique, the stone gives each vase itsown distinct veining and shades. Standing 58 cmtall, these monumental and highly decorative pieces are designedto anchor a space; they are ideally suited for placementin an entryway, on a mantelpiece, a largeconsole table, or even perched atop columns.
