Description

A rare set of five large Medici-style garden vases, made of reconstituted stone, dating from the 19th century and originating from an old country house in Aix-en-Provence.These remarkable outdoor decorative pieces captivate with their beautiful proportions, sculptural presence, and richly detailed decoration. They feature superb bowls adorned with garlands in relief, finely crafted motifs, and lids topped with distinctive handles.Over time, the set has developed a magnificent natural patina, with the warm hues of aged stone, which bears witness to its history and lends it all its charm and authenticity.Their large size and number are a real asset: it is particularly rare today to find five matching antique pieces that form such a harmonious set. Ideal for enhancing the garden of a Provençal estate, a
