Description

An important oil on canvas signed lower left by Georges Lattès (1907-1989), a French naturalist painter renowned for his depictions of rural life and the French countryside in the mid-20th century. The work depicts a harvest scene. Here, the artist demonstrates his mastery of light with a vast, cloudy, luminous, and atmospheric sky--a hallmark of his style. A faithful testament to a bygone era, this painting fits perfectly within the artist's sought-after body of work dedicated to rural life and the cultivation of the land.In very good condition (sound canvas, beautifully textured) Presented in its substantial, classic-style wooden frame, which showcases the work remarkably well.
