Description

Decorative Art Deco folding screen with four hinged panels, featuring a superb Japanese-inspired painted design by M.A. de Manet.This distinctive piece features a spectacular botanical composition depicting a tree with reddish-brown branches, surrounded by lush foliage in shades of blue and deep green, punctuated by long clusters of golden-yellow flowers reminiscent of laburnum.The piece as a whole offers a highly pictorial design, with deep, contrasting colors, reminiscent of Asian art and the large botanical compositions popular in Art Deco interiors.With its four hinged panels, this folding screen elegantly defines a space, creates an intimate corner, or serves as a decorative piece in its own right.Height: 173 cm4 panels, each 58 cm long, for a total length of 232 cmEconomy
