Description

A pair of three-light silver candelabras by Georg Jensen, with an elegant and sculptural design, resting on a molded oval base. The baluster shaft supports two sinuous arms adorned with stylized foliage motifs, characteristic of Georg Jensen's naturalistic design language. The candle holders and sockets feature soft, slightly flared shapes. Both pieces bear the vintage "GJ" hallmarks, the Danish hallmark "DENMARK," and a numbered rectangular hallmark on the underside of the base. Based on the type of Georg Jensen hallmark, these candelabras can be dated to the company's early production, likely around 1920-1930 and thus during Georg Jensen's lifetime. Signs of use, fine scratches, and slight tarnish consistent with the piece's age.Origin: Denmark · Period: circa 1920-1930 · Material: silver · Height: 20.5 cm ·
