Description

This charming side table stands out for its solid mahogany frame, topped with a white marble slab delicately veined with gray, giving it a look that is both classic and refined. The rim forms a shallow basin. The front opens to reveal two drawers of equal size, subtly accented by discreet brass trim and adorned with gilded bronze handles. The slender, sheathed legs are connected by a crossbar, which is itself adorned on the front with a concave gilt-bronze molding, adding a touch of sophistication to the piece. Both decorative and practical, this small coffee table will bring a touch of timeless charm to any interior.*Period: Mid-20th centuryExcellent condition following restoration in our workshop.
