Description

Renaissance-style urn chestCarved walnutLate 18th centuryFrom TuscanyThe piece is in excellent condition, intact, and still retains its original patina.The hinges and lock have been replaced.A rare jewelry box, finely and entirely carved in the most characteristic style of the Tuscan Renaissance.The urn-shaped form with animal-foot legs is an elegant miniature version of the magnificent 16th-century Florentine chests.The proportions are excellent, with vigorous carving on all four sides and on the lid.It is in excellent condition, and its splendid patina--which, over time, has given the hard walnut wood a marble-like appearance--is particularly noteworthy.
