A Decagonal Table From The Charles X Period, Made Of Mahogany

9 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Mahogany

Diameter : 108 cm

Height : 75 cm

Description

A decagonal mahogany dining table inlaid with boxwood and lemon tree strips.It features a four-drawer base and rests on a pentagonal base.Charles X period.The originality of this piece lies in the fact that the tabletop has ten sides, as opposed to the usual six or eight.A rare piece in perfect condition.

Dealer

Galerie Richard Juy

Mobilier et objets d'art d'époque Charles X - Tableaux XIXème siècle

Mobile : +33608747877

Fontainebleau 77300