Description

A massive 19th-century solid walnut sideboardThis distinctive piece stands out for its beautiful front, punctuated by five molded and carved doors, adorned with scalloped panels typical of Louis XV furniture. It also features five drawers in the upper section, adorned with handles and lock plates in patinated metal, as well as beautiful decorative details.We particularly appreciate its curved lines, its rounded, carved stiles accentedby gadroons. The legs are arched and shell-shaped, and the doors are secured with laced dowels.The central section, consisting of a door and a drawer, is set back, which givesthis sideboard a real presence.The interior offers ample storage space with shelves, ideal for storing tableware, linens, or decorative items.The patina, created using beeswax, is warm and
