Description

An iconic model listed in period catalogs under the name Schlaf-sofa Nr. 2 (model 9702), this piece exemplifies the Thonet company's mastery of bent solid wood. Its sinuous frame, crafted from stained beech, is adorned with volutes at the base, while its elongated seat and reclining backrest with armrests are upholstered in elegant, traditional openwork cane. Combining ergonomics designed for relaxation with the organic lines characteristic of the emerging Art Nouveau style, this collectible chaise longue stands out for the fluidity of its iconic curves.Dimensions: 115x65x185 cmDate: 1900
