PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Desk, Flat-topped, Mahogany, Period Piece, 19th-century Restoration

780 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Restauration-era mahogany desk - 19th centuryA very elegant, large mahogany desk from the Restauration era, dating from the 19th century.This beautiful desk is crafted from mahogany with a particularly rich and warm grain. The front features five drawers arranged in three sections, each equipped with its own lock and key.The top is covered in green leather, edged with an elegant gilded frame. It is adorned with two side extensions, providing a particularly generous work surface when extended.The piece rests on four turned, tapered, and richly molded legs, lending the desk a beautiful elegance and a striking presence.The sides are also made of mahogany and display a very beautiful grain. The quality of the mahogany, the piece's proportions, and the arrangement of the drawers make this

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200

desk a particularly representative example of Restoration-period furniture.A generously sized piece, ideal for a study, a library, or a home with character.Period: Restoration, 19th centuryMaterial: mahoganyTop: green leather with gilded trimStorage: five drawers and two side pull-outsDimensions when closed: height 76 cm × width 136 cm × depth 73 cmDimensions with side drawers open: length 208 cmCondition: good overall condition