Description

A rare set of four half-cabriolet armchairs in painted beech wood in the Louis XVI style, resting on fluted and scalloped legs, with square backs. The presence of half-florets on the rear connecting blocks, the woodworking at the top of the backrest, and the elegant belt are all details that reflect Georges Jacob's commitment to excellence. The chairs are in excellent condition in terms of cabinetmaking, with the original lacquer and upholstery restored by me using traditional methods. Fabric from Manufacture Prelle.
