Description

Sèvres porcelain plate decorated with the Château de Chambord - 19th centuryA beautiful Sèvres porcelain plate, adorned in the center with a charming polychrome design depicting the Château de Chambord in a wooded landscape, with a pond in the foreground.The rim features a superb deep blue background, richly embellished with floral garlands, ribbons, and gilded ornamental motifs. A wide gilded frieze elegantly frames the central medallion bearing the inscription "CHAMBORD."The reverse bears a green "S.77" stamp, accompanied by a painted blue mark depicting two intertwined Ls with the letter A in the center. The latter corresponds to the historic royal cipher of Sèvres for the year 1753. The presence of these two markings allows one to distinguish the date of manufacture of the
