Description

A rotating bookcase with a top panel covered in its original leather, decorated with small metal inlays. Its three compartments are arranged on two levels, each 25 cm high. Crafted from mahogany with rosewood inlays, it dates from the second half of the 19th century, around 1880. Note a small, barely visible scratch on one side (see photo). This is a very rare model on the market. Highly decorative, it will complement all kinds of interiors, from classic to more contemporary styles. We can arrange shipping within mainland France for EUR100, including insurance.
