PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Richly Carved Natural Oak Sideboard - Louis XV Style - Early 19th Century

880 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oak

Length : 160 cl

Height : 103 cm

Depth : 54 mm

Description

A beautiful antique sideboard made of solid oak in the Louis XV style, dating from the early 19th century, featuring a superb, richly carved front and exquisite proportions.This piece stands out for the delicacy and richness of its carvings, adorned with floral motifs, foliage, and elegant scrollwork.Its front features two doors with carved panels, framing a magnificent fixed central panel adorned with an oval medallion, accented by delicate floral carvings.At the top, three drawers complete this harmonious ensemble.The lower rail, beautifully scroll-cut and carved, along with its curved legs, lend it all the elegance and refinement of the Louis XV style.This sideboard has recently undergone meticulous restoration, carried out entirely by hand by a cabinetmaker, to restore all the charm

Dealer

Camille Laurent Tourgis Antiquités

antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 0632818057

allée des fauvettes

Hardelot-Plage 62152

of its original wood.The old varnish was carefully removed by hand, without chemical stripping or sandblasting, allowing the full beauty of its natural oak to shine through.The piece now boasts a magnificent light oak hue, entirely natural, without any varnish or artificial finish.This restoration particularly highlights the wood's grain, the delicacy of the carvings, and the lovely signs of age that attest to its authenticity.Highly sought after today in interior design, antique furniture made of natural wood has regained its rightful place in contemporary interiors, country homes, and warm, inviting spaces in the French or English style.With its striking presence, elegant carved front, and ample storage space, this sideboard will fit perfectly in a dining room, living room, or spacious entryway.An antique piece full of character, combining authenticity, elegance, and timeless charm.Period: Early 19th centuryStyle: Louis XVWood: Solid oakFinish: Natural, unvarnished oakWork performed: Manual removal of the original finish by a cabinetmakerOpenings: Two doors and three drawersDistinctive feature: Magnificent, richly carved front with a fixed central panel featuring an oval medallion.Camille Laurent Tourgis Antiquités