Description

We are offering this refined antique Italian dining table dating from the mid-19th century. This elegant antique table is the ideal piece for those seeking a piece of furniture with character, capable of commanding attention with its presence.This walnut table features a large round top supported by an imposing central base. The finely turned, spindle-shaped center post rests on four sturdy, sinuous, and carved legs. The structure highlights the rich, warm grain of the dark wood, enhanced by a polish that lends depth and elegant highlights to the entire surface. The proportions are perfect for comfortably accommodating guests without visually overwhelming the space.Functionally, the table is extendable and features an additional center panel, ideal for seating extra guests for lunch or
