Description

An antique rustic coffee table in pine from Spain, made around 1850. It has a thick plank top with softly worn edges, two drawers with hand-forged wrought iron pulls, and stands on four sturdy turned legs joined by an H-shaped stretcher.The deep reddish-brown patina of the old pine is full of character: you can see the grain, the knots and the marks of more than a century and a half of use. The turned legs with their rings and bulbous shapes, and the iron drop pulls, give the table the honest, solid look of Spanish country furniture.Both drawers open well and offer handy storage for books and magazines. The table measures 130 cm long, 62.5 cm deep and 49 cm high. The top is worn, with dents, small cracks and scratches, which only adds to its authentic charm.A warm and characterful coffee table in
