Description

A beautiful cabinet made of solid walnut, featuring two hinged doors and two drawers on the front.This piece originates from the southwestern region and consists of two stacked sections. It is topped by a removable pediment with broken gables and a central finial, so it can be displayed with or without this pediment.It rests on two square-section legs at the back and two tapered legs at the front.Each section consists of a door, a large crosswise drawer, and a shelf. This piece was crafted in the 19th century using older components; it is of high-quality workmanship and features a superb patina. Easy to transport.Dimensions:Height without pediment: 201 cmHeight with pediment: 226 cmLength at the baseboard: 86 cmDepth at the baseboard: 64 cmPlease contact us for shipping costs
