PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Exceptional Concealed Safe From Maison Petitjean, Paris, 19th Century / Napoleonic III Period

900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

An exceptional concealed safe (with a "trompe-l'oeil" design) from the renowned Maison Petitjean Paris, dating from the late 19th century / the Napoleon III era. This piece of cabinetry perfectly mimics a mahogany or rosewood chest of drawers or weekly organizer inlaid with a fern leaf motif. It is topped with its original cherry-red marble slab, which has a crack; see photos. Inside is a genuine period safe with a secure door and an inner compartment. Complete lock set; keys included. Dimensions: 60x120x40 cm; Weight: 350 kg Challenges: Located on the 6th floor of an apartment in Cannes; quotes to move it down to the ground floor are all EUR700 including tax. Delivery within Cannes or the immediate surrounding area. The EUR700 fee is the buyer's responsibility; I

Dealer

Relics Antiquités

Antique dealer and Vintage Shop in Cannes

Mobile : 0611682317

7 avenue jean de lattre de tassigny

Cannes 06400

am selling only the safe.