Description

An elegant octagonal silver tray featuring a refined geometric outline with beveled edges, accentuated by several molded bands that delicately define its perimeter. The simple, uncluttered base highlights the characteristic lines of the Art Deco style.It features two side handles made of blackened wood, attached to the silver rim, which provide a decorative contrast to the metal's luster.With its geometric design, understated lines, and combination of silver and dark wood, this piece is a fine example of Art Deco aesthetics, suitable for both a silverware collection and decorative display.Dimensions: Total length, including handles: 44 cm - Width: 40 cm Rim height: 3 cm Material: 950/1°° fine silverGross weight: 2,100 gramsHallmark: MINERVEPeriod: ART DECO, circa
