Description

The proportions, the paint layer, and the poses suggest that this is a foreign work.This beautifully executed polychrome work lends grandeur to this sculpture in the round.The face of the Virgin Mary, generous and profound, radiates her boundless kindness.The quality of the drapery across the various reliefs adds a touch of realism.Her headdress completes the composition.The infant Jesus is depicted in a three-quarter view.Christ is in a neonatal transition.This period is characterized by a transition from aquatic life in the womb to life in the air.In their hands, a globe symbolizes power.Is this an allegory of universal presence?The harmony in this fusion conveys an authentic presence that naturally finds its way into your home.Delivery available (not included
