Description

The work depicts a crouching child, originally conceived in 1924 during Severo Pozzati's (Sepo) years in Paris. The composition stands out for its extraordinary sculptural synthesis and its sense of intimate spatial intimacy, in which the soft volumes of the body blend harmoniously with the bronze surface, enlivened by a rich and vibrant chiaroscuro. Bronze with a brown patina, mounted on a wooden base. Overall dimensions including the base: 18 x 10 x 8 cm (height). Numbered edition, no. 35/50. Merighi Arte foundry. Directly from the artist's studio. Work cataloged in the volume Sculture di Sepo, edited by Claudio Spadoni and Vania Strukelj (referring to the original model cast in Paris in 1924; this edition was executed by Merighi Arte).
