Description

An elegant, small, antique solid silver bowl, bearing the French "Minerve" (Minerva) hallmark and a lozenge-shaped maker's mark. The piece features a low, circular body, accented by a beautifully molded rim with multiple stepped contours. It is embellished with two elaborately crafted side handles, decorated with stylized, raised foliage. This botanical motif--composed of overlapping leaves and delicately sculpted forms--lends significant character to this piece of fine metalwork. The object reflects meticulous craftsmanship, in keeping with the tradition of classic French silversmithing. Specifications: Material: solid silver; Hallmark: "Minerve"; Maker's mark: present (lozenge-shaped); Body diameter (excluding handles): 12.5 cm; Height: 3 cm; Weight: 110 grams; Period: late 19th - early
