Description

A charming antique sideboard made entirely of mahogany, dating from the early 20th century, featuring exquisite craftsmanship and an elegant turned-wood frame.This lovely piece, in the style of English furniture, stands out for the delicacy of its turned legs, its decorative crossbars, and its superb mahogany hue with warm, deep tones.The entire piece is made entirely of mahogany, including the removable serving tray, the lower shelf, and the entire folding base.The serving tray, elegantly edged with molded trim and two openwork handles, can be easily removed for use on its own.A lower shelf harmoniously complements the piece, providing additional space for books, decorative items, or serving accessories.The unique feature of this sideboard is its ingenious, fully folding mechanism, which
