Description

An elegant French table clock from the early decades of the 19th century, crafted in gilded bronze and featuring a refined architectural design in the Empire style. The case has a small-temple shape, with a central body decorated with geometric panels in relief and resting on a molded base with ornamental feet.The upper section houses the circular dial with a bronze-colored background, Roman numerals, and black hands, framed by a rich laurel wreath decoration. The top is embellished with an elegant ornamental motif featuring foliage and volutes, which lends a sense of grace and movement to the composition.Provenance: FrancePeriod: early 1800sStyle: EmpireDimensions: 12x9x26h cmSKU: 17597
