Description

An elegant, lidded silver-plated vegetable tureen, presented beautifully and featuring Louis XV-style ornamentation. This round piece has a scalloped, molded rim and is accented by two exquisite side handles, richly crafted with foliate motifs and scrolls. The domed lid is topped with a charming decorative finial in the shape of a pinecone, resting on a chased base. Two hallmarks are present on the underside: a square maker's mark depicting a human head in profile between the letters "R" and "L," and a rectangular mark bearing the number "20." The maker remains unidentified. Period: late 19th to early 20th century (to be confirmed). Dimensions: Diameter: 23 cm; Total height: 15 cm; Weight: 1,228 g. Condition: Good overall condition, with some light scratches and signs of use, but no
