Description

Jug with a handle on its display tray made of "mousseline"-quality blown Venetian glass.The small pitcher with a funnel-shaped base appears to literally float thanks to its wide, supple neck, which is pinched at the spout, and its incredibly delicate handle, masterfully hot-soldered.It rests on a four-lobed tray with four folded corners.A gold fillet runs along the entire rim as well as the spouted neck.Decorated with raised gold floral stems (very slight wear on the gold).Both pieces still bear their original label: ARTE VETRO GSIn perfect condition1970s
