Description

"Techno" swivel chairs designed by Philippe Starck in the 1980s and manufactured by Maletti for L'Oréal. Made of aluminum, plastic, and steel, these chairs combine functionality with postmodern design.  In good overall condition, they show signs of wear that attest to their use and authenticity from that period. Ideal for work environments or modern spaces, they represent a classic example of Starck's innovative design.MOSESE0331367
