Description

1960s chairs of Italian manufacture, featuring a wooden structure and brass joints at the base, adding a touch of elegance. The seat and backrest are upholstered in skai in shades of beige and blue, offering a delicate and harmonious color contrast. The overall condition is good, with some signs of wear that attest to the vintage charm of these pieces. Ideal for enriching retro-style furnished environments or adding a touch of Italian design to contemporary spaces.MOSESE0331055
