Description

A charming pair of handheld candlesticks dating from the 1900s-1910s, made of stamped and openwork brass, richly adorned with multicolored cut glass cabochons in shades of cobalt blue, emerald green, amber, red, and purple.Their Oriental-inspired design, combined with an elegant handle topped with embossed foliage, gives them a particularly original aesthetic.This style is characteristic of the small decorative objects and novelty items featured in the early 20th century catalogs of major Parisian department stores, such as the Grands Magasins du Louvre or Le Bon Marché.In excellent condition, with no damage, and a lovely patina from age on the brass. Both candlesticks are fully functional.These are unique and decorative pieces that can just as easily enhance a classic or
